COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY | STATISTICS

October 19, 2026

Dear Junguang,

On behalf of the faculty and administration of the Department of Statistics, we are pleased to congratulate you on your outstanding academic achievement during the 2025–2026 academic year.

Through your hard work and dedication, you have been selected to receive the 2026 Statistics Chair's List of Academic Achievements, which recognizes Master's students who have demonstrated distinguished academic performance during their first year of study.

We applaud your commitment to excellence and trust that the success you have achieved thus far will serve as the foundation for even greater accomplishments ahead. We are proud of your achievements and wish you continued success.

Sincerely,

Bodhisattva Sen, Ph.D.
Professor and Chair
